2021-2022 High School Voter Registration Challenge Winners!

Lee County, FL (March 2, 2022) Lee County Supervisor of Elections, Tommy Doyle, is excited to announce the winners of the 2021-2022 High School Voter Registration Challenge:

First Place: Lehigh Senior High School (346 new registrations)
Second Place: Cape Coral High School (126 new registrations)
Third Place: East Lee County High School (106 new registrations)

This year's challenge began on September 7, 2021, and ended on February 25, 2022. Nine out of the fifteen high schools invited by Lee Elections participated in the challenge, and team members from our Community Education Services Department pre-registered and registered 691 new voters ages 16 and older.

Lee County Supervisor of Elections, Tommy Doyle, is grateful to the principals, teachers, and school administrators for partnering with the office and for their help in encouraging students to become more knowledgeable and participate in the electoral process.

Our mission is to deliver superior election services to the voters of Lee County.
